

Fish and Wildlife on the Run: Our Response to a Changing Climate

Tuesday, November 3

Grand Ballroom E, M-4

- Purpose: Provide an overview of the USGS National Climate Change and Wildlife Science Center, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service Landscape Conservation Cooperatives, and how states and other partners can cooperate in the development of tools and information to support climate adaptation strategies.
- 9:00 a.m. Welcome
Mike Harris, Georgia Department of Natural Resources
- 9:10 a.m. Wildlife Conservation in the 21st Century:
Landscape Conservation Cooperatives
Bill Uihlein, FWS
- 9:40 a.m. Climate Change and Science Needs for Adaptation Planning
Jean Brennan, Defenders of Wildlife
- 10:00 a.m. National Climate Change and Wildlife Science Center
Southeast Regional Hub Assessment Project
Sonya Jones, USGS
- 10:15 a.m. South Atlantic Landscape Conservation Cooperative
Amy Keister, FWS
- 10:30 a.m. Alligator River National Wildlife Refuge:
Implementing Adaptation Strategies
Dennis Stewart, Alligator River NWR, FWS
- 10:45 a.m. Cooperation in Adaptation Planning for Wildlife: Panel Discussion
Moderator: Robert Ford, FWS
Panelists
Cindy Dohner, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service
Greg Wathen, Tennessee Wildlife Resources Agency
David Whitehurst, Virginia Department of Game and Inland Fisheries
Arpita Choudhury, Association of Fish and Wildlife Agencies
Jean Brennan, Defenders of Wildlife
Sonya Jones, United States Geological Survey
- 12:00 p.m. Adjourn